FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

COUNTER INSURGENCY COUNCIL

On November 20, 1962, Richard Lauchli, 2012 Keebler Avenue, Collinsville, Illinois, advised that during October of 1962 he severed relations with "Minutemen" because he felt its national office was doing an ineffective job in preparing for guerrilla warfare should the United States be invaded. Lauchli, who had served as a Midwest Coordinator of Minutemen, asserted he feels the participants in that organization have lost faith with its national leader, Robert B. DePugh of Norborne, Missouri. Lauchli accused DePugh of constantly asking for funds and pleading poverty when, in fact, he has advised Lauchli that monies collected are in a safe deposit box. Lauchli further said that local members have complained that checks contributed to Minutemen have not been cashed.

Lauchli declared that at its peak, Minutemen had no more than 50 members within a radius of 100 miles of St. Louis. He said that as of late November, 1962 there is only one real member, this being John Blumer of Chesterfield, Missouri. Indices of the St. Louis Office FBI contain no pertinent data regarding Blumer. Approximately a dozen former Minutemen have joined with Lauchli in organizing the Counter Insurgency Council, Post Office Box 55, Collinsville, Illinois.

Lauchli said the purpose of this new organization will be essentially the same as that of Minutemen, i.e., to train people to fight guerrilla warfare should the United States be invaded by hostile forces. He declared the big problem is to secure competent leadership for this endeavor. As of November 20, 1962, the new organization had not engaged in any activities and he stated he was then trying to secure a national leader, preferably a retired Army officer who would head the organization.

On December 3, 1962, Lauchli furnished the following brochures and pamphlets which have been issued by Counter Insurgency Council:

1. Membership application
2. Two questionnaire forms calling for information re background and abilities of prospective members
3. Pamphlet entitled "Support the Counter Insurgency Council, an organization of loyal American volunteer citizens dedicated to the preservation of national and individual freedom in this republic. The United States of America." The pamphlet refers to a statement made by President Kennedy in January of 1961 quoted as: "Today we need a nation of minutemen; citizens who are not only prepared to take up arms, but citizens who regard the preservation of freedom as a basic purpose of their daily life and who are willing to consciously work and sacrifice for that freedom".

It is noted that in listing the 11 point program of the organization, item number 1 states: "To prepare the means for personal defense and survival in case of enemy attack". Point 3 states: "To investigate by means of our members the possible infiltration of enemy sympathizers into American organizations of Government, business, labor, religion, education, etc."

4. Pamphlet entitled "Following are Excerpts from the Communist Manual of Instructions of Psychopolitical Warfare".
5. Pamphlet titled "Official Definition of Democracy".
6. Excerpts from a speech by Captain Diodorous "to the Roman Senate during the fall of the Roman Empire".

On December 4, 1962, an anonymous source furnished a copy of a letter signed by Lauchli bearing the typed letterhead "Counter Insurgency Council, Post Office Box 55, Collinsville,

RE: COUNTER INSURGENCY COUNCIL

Illinois," which states that Counter Insurgency Council will offer a seminar on hand combat to "proven patriots" on the eighth of December between 1:00 and 6:00 p.m. He stated this will take place in St. Louis County, but the exact location will not be revealed until after December 5, 1962 to forestall the information passing to unauthorized person. The invitation asserts both men and women are invited to attend and further the instructor comes from a large midwestern city where "he has instructed various police departments for some time".

Attention of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have received a letter from a Mr. Raymond Dow of 2922 164th Street, Flushing 58, New York in response to a radio program which I conduct. It contained a pamphlet regarding a book published by the Counter-Insurgency Council, Post Office Box 55, Collinsville, Illinois.

The letter and the advertisement seem legitimate but I would like to know if the Counter-Insurgency Council is considered a legitimate operation by our government.

Thank you very much.

INFORMATION CONCERNING

Intermittent

Mr. HARMON WILLIAMS, Vice President and Sales Manager, Browning Arms Company, First Security Bank Building, Ogden, Utah, has advised that representatives of Counter Insurgency Council have approached one of their Canadian dealers regarding purchase of rifles. He said he does not have information as to the identity of the dealer contacted in Canada. The person representing the Council indicated they were interested in buying thousands of NATO rifles, for which they would pay cash.

Mr. WILLIAMS explained that in the past the Browning Arms Company had imported a limited number of NATO rifles, which were mainly sold to gun collectors. These weapons were so manufactured that they would not fire fully automatically without modification; however, due to the fact the standard NATO rifles could be fired fully automatically, questions were raised regarding the legality of the weapon by representatives of the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division of the U. S. Treasury Department. For that reason the Browning Arms Company discontinued sale of the rifles in the United States, but their Canadian dealers have continued selling the rifles in Canada.

Mr. WILLIAMS did not know the nature of the Counter Insurgency Council but assumed it was a group of individuals

Richard Lauchli, Collinsville, Illinois, in November, 1962, advised that he had organized the Counter Insurgency Council, Collinsville, Illinois, the purpose of which is essentially to train people in guerilla warfare in the event the United States should be invaded by hostile forces.

As a matter of information only, Mr. Thurman Darr, Alcohol Tobacco and Tax Division of Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Washington, D. C., today furnished the attached ad from the June 5, 1964, issue of "The Shotgun News" Columbus, Nebraska, relating to the Benet Arms Company, 977 Filbert Street, San Francisco, California, in which ad mention is made that FN-FAL assault rifles can be delivered to Canadian buyers. Mr. Darr explained that he was calling this matter to our attention in view of the information set forth in FBI letterhead memorandum dated May 4, 1964, which was disseminated to IRS which noted that representatives of the Counter Insurgency Council had approached one of the Canadian dealers of the Browning Arms Company regarding the purchase of rifles.

Darr said he was merely calling this to our attention in view of the possible tie-in between the Benet Arms Company and the Counter Insurgency Council. He added that the Benet Arms Company is either owned or managed by one William B. Edwards, who according to Darr, is a former associate of Richard Lauchli, the organizer of the Counter Insurgency Council. Darr explained that Edwards and Lauchli were formerly associated with American Automatic Weapons, Incorporated, Collinsville, Illinois, a non-business group which believed that the collection and control of automatic weapons should not be supervised by the Federal Government.
